DALLAS LOCAL

READ THIS.

We are very pleasant to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Green Parrot at 2415 Elm Street. We note with emphasis that management of this market extends to the colored trade of Dallas, an invitation to inspect the meats sold there and invite a share of their trade. All kinds of fresh meats, beef, pork, mutton and all kinds of sausage, fish, etc. They will take your order over the phone and deliver same to you. Phone M. 1406 and automatic Y 1402.

You won't believe your own eyes when you see the Green Parrot.

Your mother, your sister, your daughter, your sweetheart can all visit the Green Parrot. Everything high class—strictly individual.

The Green Parrot's squawk is even musical.

Don't take our word but come and see for yourself, the Green Parrot, 2415 Elm Street.

The classic soft drinks, both hot and cold are served at the Green Parrot every evening 7 till 12.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF PRIVATE LIFE.

Mrs. Maggie Abner, entertained Saturday night a few friends at her home 2909 Thomas Avenue, in honor of her son-in-law, Mr. Henry Lee, who has been stationed at Camp Dodge, Iowa.

The prettiest girls are at the Green Parrot, 3rd floor over Royal Cafe, 2415 Elm Street.

PROF. J. C. PHILLIPS, A. M., IN RECIPE.

On Monday night of this week, the above gentleman gave a recital at the C. M. E. church in Oklahoma City, Okla. His audience was good. His recitals were held from nine o'clock sharp to eleven with wrapped attention and giving applause so frequently all through that at many points he had to pause to get a hearing. Many scholarly people with many others expressed perfect delight and amazement at his excellent renditions. Without contradiction Prof. Phillips is the coming Negro pianist and impersonating reader. He is a young man who has already taken much training in Eastern colleges, still remains in the Boston school of Expression, and seeks to study later in some of the European schools. The race can do nothing better than get behind such a young man and with encouragement and money, push him to the utmost of vision.

Always yours for race progress
W. H. NIELSON,
Pastor C. M. E. church.

Yes, this parrot has green eyes, green head, green feet, green body—just the Green Parrot in the world.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE AND ACT IN ACCORDANCE WITH REQUEST.

Special program for the Dickson Colored Orphanage for Thanksgiving Day. I will earnestly ask that the churches, Sunday Schools, B. Y. P. U., Epworth Leagues, Local Lodges and Societies meet in your different places of assembly and carry out some part of this program, thereby stirring up the minds of our people along the lines of charity and do something in a substantial way for the orphan children throughout this state.

Program.
1. Song—Over the River, Faces I See.
2. Scripture Reading.

The Dickson Colored Orphanage and its needs. Quilt, sheet, pillow case, soap, bathing and provisions of all kinds are needed and will be accepted.

Resolution.
Four thousand six hundred children have been cared for in sixteen years by this institution. One hundred and eight girls married off, nineteen boys doing well, one hundred and five inmates at present to be clothed, fed and educated. The public is called upon to help do so.

W. L. DICKSON,
President Manager and General Superintendent Dickson Colored Orphanage.

The best dinner floor this side of Atlantic City will be found at the Green Parrot.

The Green Parrot opens Thursday night, Nov. 13, at 2415 Elm St., 3rd floor over Royal Cafe.

CAN'T YOU SEE?

That constant neglect of your eyes is false pride and likely to have a most disastrous result. When your vision requires artificial help, you must get it or suffer the consequences.

If you need glasses you will save nothing by waiting. My glasses are reasonable in price—your sight is priceless.

I am properly equipped for making thorough and intelligent examination of the eyes at your home—write the prescription for your glasses and deliver same. Make an appointment by phone.

SPECIAL RETURN SHOWING

WM. S. HART,

Featured in

"TRUTHFUL TULLIVER"

a story of the west with Mr. Hart at his best. Saturday Only—Matinee 2 p. m.

WM. S. HART IN SCENE FROM TRIANGLE PLAY.

HART CLEANS UP A WESTERN TOWN WITH RED HOT EDITORIALS AND LEAD.

William S. Hart, the Western whirlwind, does some tall shooting, writing and riding at the Mammoth Theatre on Saturday Night, where he will be seen in "TRUTHFUL TULLIVER."

"TRUTHFUL TULLIVER" deals with a "bad man" mining town of fifty years ago. Hart is a clean-hearted, hard-hitting newspaper man by occupation and a sort of knight-errant wanderer by inclination. He drifts into "Glory Hole" and finds some pretty rotten doings going on. Red-hot editorials against some of the leading citizens blaze from his pen and circulate before the eyes of the people. He finds himself confronted by two choices: either he must betake himself and his newspaper out of "Glory Hole," or he must rid the town of the indecent gentlemen who like neither his decency or his honesty. Bill decides to stay. He oils up his shooting irons and plunges into startling adventures and thrilling feats, in the course of which the editor wins not only a reputation but a bride as well.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION

With "FRANK MAYO"

Featured in "THE BRUTE BREAKER" a story of the west and the north woods. Full of action and thrills. Matinee Monday 2 p. m.—member 25 presents given away every Tuesday night.

When Louis Grantaire inherited a forest principally at the death of his father he determined to clean out the lumber camps, around which an evil name clung like a pall.

At the first camp he found LeBlanc, a bully who beat weaker men for the blood-lust of beating, and marked the faces of the helpless with the calks of his boots.

At the second camp was Noores, as bad as LeBlanc.

At the third was Pierre, worse than both the others together.

Each of these men Louis Grantaire sent beaten out of camp, bruised and sullen.

At the foot of the deadly rapids Louis found a French girl, Annette Bossent. She stood apart and watched a dance at which the rough lumbermen whirled their women violently across the splintering floor.

When Annette refused to dance with Louis, whom she believed to be an ordinary lumberman, he swept her from her feet and forced her to dance with him. She was angered.

The three bullies slunk back into the settlement after nightfall and tried to kill Louis. The girl was against him and his future seemed overhung by murky clouds.

His triumph over circumstances will be shown at the Mammoth Theatre in "The Brute Breaker," a Universal photodrama of the north, in which Frank Mayo and Kathryn Adams play the stellar roles.

"The Brute Breaker"

A Picture as Big as Its Big Woods Settings

RUGGED as its mountains and strong as its primeval rocks—a great picture of a bold man's ascendancy over trouble-makers in the big lumber camps of the North Woods. A drama beautiful with inspiring romance and featuring two popular stars in roles which will make them live in your memory. An hour at this great outdoors picture is as good as a day in the woods. Now playing.
